

Job Description

Position Title: Head Men's Basketball Coach
Department: Athletics
Position Status: Part-Time
Reports to: Athletic Director
FLSA Status: Non-exempt
Last Revision Date: February 2, 2021

General Summary: The Head Men's Basketball Coach is responsible for planning, developing and managing the operations of an intercollegiate basketball program which contributes toward the fulfillment of the mission and vision of Oak Hills Christian College.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Providing all aspects of overall organization and management of the specified team in game, practice and workouts
- The position will assist the Athletic Director in specified duties including but not limited to:
 - Recruiting, Scouting, Scheduling, Coordinating travel, Monitoring athlete academics, Organizing and managing camps and clinics, Organizing and managing home competitions, Promoting the team and the athletic department, and fundraising activity and events.
- Maintaining proactive contacts with key influencers of prospective student athletes

Education and Experience Requirements:

Coaching experience required; prior intercollegiate, club, or high school basketball coaching is preferred

Required Knowledge, Skills, Abilities and minimum qualifications:

- Have a visible Passion for God/Clear Testimony
- Fully embrace the doctrinal position, mission, and values of Oak Hills and the denominational diversity of Oak Hills Christian College.
- Adaptable and Flexible
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Team oriented
- Ability to utilize computer software

Working Environment:

- Regular Travel
- Irregular Hours

Physical/Mental Requirements:

- Able to travel
- Able to lift and/or move 25lbs
- Able to move about-walk, stand, sit, stoop